

Best Posters

Judges – Debbie Williams, Mette Rodgers, Jodie Walker Haywood, Alan Tang, Kaveh Manavi, Daniel Richardson, Jenny Whetham, Jodie Crossman

Winners

P055 The online PrEP clinic: improving access to pre-exposure HIV prophylaxis and follow-up.
Robert Brown

P080 Barriers to attending cervical screening amongst ethnic minority women: a qualitative analysis.
H Dhokia

P084 Successful management of persistent vulvovaginal yeast infection using oral voriconazole.
G Morris

P086 How is economic evidence conceptualised when evaluating sexual health interventions and the control of sexually transmitted infections (STIs)? – A systematic review.
S Bloch

P095 To what extent are community pharmacists "Spotting the Signs" and acting appropriately according to the child sexual exploitation safeguarding training?
S Boparan

P096 An evaluation study of the experiences of Deaf sign language users who have accessed sexual health services in South England.
D Brewer

P127 "You Guys are Good at Swabs!" Setting up a staff and patient Coronavirus testing service using existing Sexual Health Service infrastructure in a large regional teaching hospital.
R Taylor

P157 Beyond the binary: how we're failing to meet the sexual health needs of trans, non-binary and gender diverse people.
K Ellis

Best undergraduate oral presentations

Judges – Suneeta Soni, Shalini Andrews

Winners

Sexually transmitted infection (STI) research priority setting – working with patients, the public, clinicians and stakeholders to identify STI research priorities for the North West of England
Ms Hannah Browne, Liverpool

Facilitators and barriers to pre-exposure prophylaxis (PrEP). Acceptability among ethnic minority men-who-have-sex-with-men (EMMSM): a systematic review
Mr Adrian McGrath, Coventry

Commended:

Mr Saif Abbas Chatoo, Cardiff

Ms Tessa Mitchell, Southampton

Ms Annabel Gerard-Pearse, Southampton

Best oral presentations

Judges – Suneeta Soni, Elizabeth Foley, Sophie Forsyth, Anna Maria Geretti, Ceri Evans, John Evans-Jones

Winners

O03

Development and testing of auditable quality standards for the safeguarding of young people aged 16-17 seeking online STI testing

Dr Ahimza Thirunavukarasu, London

O08

Congenital syphilis in the UK - is it on the rise?

Kate Francis, London

O09

Spontaneous clearance of genital and extra-genital Neisseria gonorrhoea: data from the GToG trial

Dr Sarah Mensforth, Birmingham

O10

Disseminated gonococcal infection case series: clinical presentations, microbiology findings and whole genome sequencing results

Dr Jennifer Murira, Leeds

Prestigious STI award

Presented by Prof. Anna Maria Geretti

